PRESS RELEASE

No : 12/2016
Date : March 3, 2016

Ahok Files Annual Tax Returns Using e-filing System

Jakarta's Governor, Basuki Tjahaja Purnama, more commonly known as Ahok, today has filed his annual income tax returns (SPT) online using the Directorate General of Taxation (DGT) electronic filing (e-filing) system on the website <https://djponline.pajak.go.id/>.

Using a laptop at the Jakarta City Hall, Ahok lodged his tax returns and thus exemplify to all civil servants in Jakarta Provincial Government to file tax returns in a timely manner and to comply with the requirements of the Minister of Administrative and Bureaucratic Reform which stipulates that all public servants are to file their tax returns using the e-filing system.

Ahok reiterates his support for the central government's efforts to improve tax revenue collection. The governor also reminds his subordinates in the Jakarta Provincial Government and all taxpayers in Jakarta to file their annual income tax returns before the deadline date of March 31, 2016.

Taxes are the main source of Indonesia revenue and the DGT urges all Indonesian to take part in financing the state budget by doing their taxes honestly and accurately.

All taxpayers are advised to take advantage of the facilities provided by the DGT, including online tax payments through the e-billing system, and online reporting of income tax returns through the e-filing system. Both systems can be accessed at <https://djponline.pajak.go.id/>.

Call Kring Pajak at 1500200 or visit the nearest tax service office (KPP or KP2KP) if you have any difficulties with the systems or for general information on taxation. Our services are provided free of charge because #PajakMilikBersama.
